MARVEL COMICS

PROFILE: Ron Garney

Ron Garney entered the fast lane of the comics biz three years ago as artist on MOON KNIGHT, followed by a terrifying stint on NIGHTSTALKERS. Since then, Ron has kept his engine running red hot, and is now the penciler of GHOST RIDER. Ron slowed down long enough to answer a few questions.

Where and when were you born?
On October 20, 1962, in Torrington, Connecticut, in Charlotte Hungerford Hospital.

How did you break into comics?
I was drawing when I was two. I have drawings of Superman and Batman that I did at that age. As far as my earliest real experience, that was three years ago. I was working behind a bar when one of the other bartenders brought in a SECRET WARS issue. I was in the middle of that stage where I didn't know what I wanted to do with my life. I had forgotten about comics, and seeing that SECRET WARS issue just brought me back

I was hooked from that point on. I worked on some samples, I brought them in to Marvel, and I just got lucky. My timing was good. Danny Fingeroth and Bobbie Chase both gave me some work on the spot, and since then, I've had the privilege of working with just about every other editor at Marvel.

Where did you receive your training?
I'm pretty much self-taught, as far as comics. In college, I majored in graphic design and psychology. Right after college, I was doing graphic design and artwork for area magazines, and I was not happy doing it. It just wasn't what I wanted to do.

Who are some of your creative influences?
There are so many. Norman Rockwell, I admire a lot. Patrick Nagel — even though he's dead (laughter) ... In comic books, John Buscema, Neal Adams, John Byrne, Joe Kubert ... just about anybody in the business who I consider to be good. John Romita Jr. I like a lot.

Who are some of your favorite performers?
Lynyrd Skynyrd, when they were good ... Steven Wright ... Imus in the morning ... Rush Limbaugh ... Arnold Schwarzennegger ... I like Kevin Costner's movies ... Michelle Pfeiffer — Mm-mm-mm! ... Aerosmith ...

Since you work on GHOST RIDER, we're required to ask you this question: do you ride a motorcycle?
I used to. I had a Yamaha 750. My dad owned a Harley. But I haven't ridden for a few years.

What are your hobbies?
Music, sports, and watching Godzilla movies!

What advice would you have for aspiring comics pros?
Draw your (butt) off! If you do happen to get in, try not to jump around projects too much because you develop a more solid style quicker by staying on a certain character. Your style develops a character of its own. Also, don't just look at comics. Study a lot of different art techniques.

What are some of your all-time favorite comics?
The old THORs by Walt Simonson — that whole "Ragnarok" story is a great read. I can always pull them out and enjoy them. I loved John Romita Jr.'s stint on DAREDEVIL with Ann Nocenti. Sin City ...

What super power would you most like to have?
To zap all the people I can't stand out of existence!

The Bullpen Beat

Movies, toys, cartoons, rock & roll, and comics.

Especially comics. Marvel 1994 is going to be a blast. At MARVEL AGE, it's up to us to bring you inside.

But how? Funny you should ask ...

First, we've assigned our best reporters to the hot beats — skilled professionals covering Marvel Films, Toy Biz, Fleer, Marvel Music, and Consumer Products — keeping on top of the late-breaking stories even as they hit.

We've signed excellent photographers so upcoming features — like those on the Marvel animation studio and the annual Toy Fair — hit with full, exciting impact.

And we've begun grilling top talents for their trade secrets, as in this month's pieces on Chuck Dixon's hard-boiled Punisher writing, Fleer's 1994 "Ultra-secret" plans, and how Rafael Kayanan's martial arts training affects his Conan artwork.

MARVEL AGE is assembling top talent, and their goal is to bring you inside. Since we're already inside, we're always in the right placed at the right time.

Count on it.
